

Gobi Challenge 2014 Pre-/Post-Event Sightseeing

Dunhuang has a remarkable collection of attractions for your exploration. We can offer sightseeing arrangement to the below excursions:

Yumenguan Pass (Jade Gate Pass)/the ruins of Han Dynasty Great Wall/Yadan National Geopark (Ghost City)

Experience the past in front of the Yumenguan Pass of ancient Silk Road and the ruins of Great Wall. Visit the Yadan landform, a kind of wind-eroded landform in desert areas; local people call it 'ghost city'.

Duration: About 8 hours

Yangguan Pass/West Thousand Buddha Caves

Yangguan Pass, once important passageway to Central Asia, India and Europe. A visit will also be made to the West Thousand Buddha Caves to explore the continuing growth of the Dunhuang art.

Duration: About 5 hours

Mogao Caves

The Mogao Caves were put into the World Heritages by United Nations Education Science and Cultural Organization (UNESCO). With years of research and study, the historical, artistic and religious significance of the Dunhuang Mogao Caves has now been affirmed.

Duration: About 4 hours

Toumingmengke Glacier

In Mongolian, Toumingmengke means high and vast. Glacial landforms such as ice holes, cliffs, falls and cracks can be found here.

Duration: About 15 hours

Besides, we can customize itinerary to other destinations (i.e. Xian, Jiayuguan, Turpan, Urumqi, etc.) for your special needs and interests, and provide other service arrangements such as flight, hotel, train ticket and car transfer, etc. Please contact us for details.
